

Summer Abroad: Scholarships & Sponsorships

What scholarships are offered?

Global Learning Scholarships - Each award is valued at $1,500 and will be given after satisfactory completion of Summer Abroad.

Partner Universities Scholarships - There are scholarships offered by the following partner universities: Korea University, LSE, Pembroke College (University of Cambridge) and Yonsei University.

What sponsorships are offered?

Global Learning Sponsorship - Each award is valued at $1,500 and will be given after satisfactory completion of Summer Abroad.

What is the difference between a Global Learning scholarship and a sponsorship?

The sponsorship is for deserving candidates who excel in areas outside of academics. Additional emphasis will be placed on vision, goals, and commitment to the service of others in assessing the suitability of these candidates.

What is the selection criteria for Global Learning scholarships/sponsorships?

Candidates are evaluated on the skills, experiences and life stories they bring. Candidates are evaluated on 7-8 areas: attitudes, global competence, vision, goals, commitment to the service of others/CCAs, leadership experience and potential, and knowledge about Global Learning programmes. Additionally, scholarship applicants will be assessed on their academic performance.

How do I apply for a scholarship or sponsorship?

All scholarship and sponsorship applicants will have to submit two (2) additional documents (Scholarship and Sponsorship Application Essay & Resume) when submitting their Summer Abroad application on SIMConnect. Late and incomplete submissions will not be considered. Recommendation letters are not needed and will not be taken into consideration.

Can I apply for both scholarships and sponsorships?

You will not need to apply for both. All applicants who submit all five (5) required documents will automatically be considered for a partner university scholarship, Global Learning Scholarship, and Global Learning sponsorship, in this order.

How will I know if I have been shortlisted for an interview?

Applicants shortlisted for scholarship interviews will be notified by the 3rd week of February.

What are my responsibilities as the recipient of a Global Learning Scholarship/Sponsorship?

Recipients are ambassadors of Singapore, of SIM, and of the Office of Global Learning. All recipients will be individually briefed on their assignments. Award will only be given after satisfactory completion of assignments.
